

Therapist Introduction

Shraddha Litoriya

Introduction

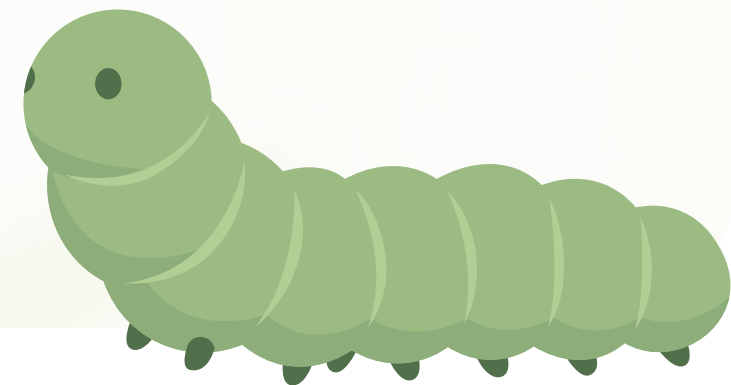

Hellu, I am Shraddha, and here are some things about me , to help you know me :)

My pronouns are She/ Her.

I am a Neurodivergent Highly Sensitive Person (HSP), based in Madhya Pradesh.

In social context - I am anti discriminatory narratives.

I deal with CPTSD, and chronic conditions like Migraines , Fibromyalgia, and spinal issues. And my outlook is shaped by these ongoing experiences too, as it helps me hold space and navigate it myself in a more informed manner too, both as an individual and as a MHP

Practice Ethics

My practice is informed with HIPAA compliance for mental health practitioners and APA.

I have completed my Masters in Psychology (with clinical major) from IGNOU, and various professional development trainings.

I continue to keep my practice informed and safe with Supervision - A continued guidance under a practitioner more experienced than me.

My practice follows consent and confidentiality as the base point to take on the journey with clients.

My Process and Practice

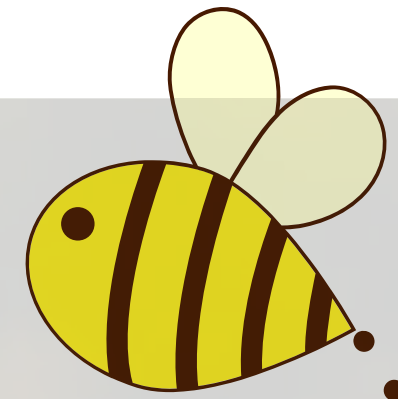

I work with a person centered idea of therapy majorly - where we move ahead in the process as and how the clients feels ready, as well as a functional approach .

I keep my practice an eclectic , which incorporates humanism, dynamism and holistic frameworks.

I hold space as a trauma informed therapist with narrative, somatic, movement and dart based, dynamic approaches, with a few other post modern therapeutic lenses.

Experience and Mediums

- I have 3 years of experience with individual as well as group therapy and counselling services.
- I also work as a trainer and educator.
- I help clients struggling With anxiety, depression, adjustment issues, trauma and complex trauma, chronic pain / conditions, injuries, abuse (majorly narcissistic abuse) , self harm, existential issues , psycho-spiritual curiosity and explorative support as well.
- I also provide short term somatic and therapeutic movement and analysis sessions, navigating pain and disconnection
- I work with Hindi and English as languages of communication.
- I am currently online sessions via Google Meet.

Bookings

- I currently offer 15 slots a week, 5 working days.
- I offer sliding scales of 1200/- to 1400/- INR for 45 minute sessions and 1400/- to 1600/- INR for 60 min sessions.

